

Letter Land

The ability to recognize, identify and form letters, as well as to associate them with sounds is key to literacy development. Involve your child in making this meaningful photo alphabet to display in his/her room!

How To:

Help your child look through old magazines to find letters of the alphabet (the larger, the better) and cut them out.

Glue their findings onto poster board or glue each onto a separate sheet of heavy paper.

www.growingmindsread.org

