

It's never too late to go to the library with your infant or toddler!

At the Library you can:

- Find books, magazines, music and videos.
- Check out books, and books on tape.
- Listen to stories.
- Watch puppet shows.
- Find information on computers.
- Find out what happens in your community.

Learning to Use Books

To help your toddler succeed you can:

- Let your toddler feel the book's cover, pages and pictures and talk about them
- Use sturdy cardboard books with thick pages so your toddler can turn the pages.
- Have your toddler point to pictures in the book.
- Let your toddler help turn the pages
